IBNORCA Bolivia is now an IQNET Affiliated Body

Bern, 14 June 2022 – IQNET Association recently welcomed The Bolivian Institute for Standardization and Quality (IBNORCA) as a new addition to the Community.

In 2016, IQNET Association welcomed Affiliated Bodies, a structure that is complementary to the IQNET membership. Through this community, Conformity Assessment Bodies from around the world are given the opportunity to observe the initiatives of IQNET, participate in technical activities, and benefit from common integrity principles; harmonized operational criteria; innovative products and services, and representation, IBNORCA is a private non-profit association created in 1993, the sole and full member representative of Bolivia in the International Organization for Standardization (ISO), belongs to the Mercosur Association for Standardization (AMN), the Pan-American Commission for Technical Standards. (COPANT), and the International Electrotechnical Commission (IEC), among others.

With IBNORCA's established capabilities, resources, and services, IQNET is confident that the new Partner will contribute to the purpose and strategy of the Network -- by displaying integrity and competence in their country or market of origin.
