IQNET Association cements relationship with EAGLE Certification Group as Full Member

Bern, 19 November 2022 – Recording another milestone, the IQNET Association Members accepted EAGLE Certification Group change of status as Full Member. The US based certification body officially joins the IQNET General Assembly – the highest authority of the Association.

As a Full Member, EAGLE Certification Group is expected to operate according to the purposes and strategy of IQNET, cooperate to advance management system certification industry, and other conformity assessment areas by fostering market promotion and recognition, as well as knowledge sharing, technical harmonization, and collaborative business relations – to create more value to the network and to their clients.

The General Assembly's decision to accept Members in the Association is guided by a comprehensive regular peer-evaluation, going beyond accreditation requirements and with focus on core business competencies.

EAGLE Certification Group was successful in establishing its compliance to agreed international requirements and criteria, capabilities, resources, services to contribute to the purposes and strategy of IQNET, and most importantly, displaying integrity and competence in their country and in the economies under their sphere of influence.

Companies, through the assistance of EAGLE Certification Group and IQNET, can now access innovative and globally recognized products and trusted services, with more opportunities to trade, build their international presence, and sustain growth.
